

Yellowstone Park Coaches Held Up Capt. Hains Near Collapse

Aug. 24—One of the coaches loaded with tourists and campers held up ever perpetrated in Yellowstone Park today. The hold-up took place between Old Faithful Inn and Yellowstone Inn. The highwayman, stopped seven robbers, after securing much booty took four of the coach horses and with them started in the direction of Jackson Hole country. Details so far received regarding the affair are meager but it is reported that the desperado was masked and that he appeared to be about 30 years of age. There are four troops of United States Cavalry in the park and a portion of the troops has been ordered to scour the country for the bandit who it is expected will be captured soon.

NEW YORK Aug. 24—Captain Peter Hains and his brother T. Jenkins Hains were taken to the magistrate's court in Long Island City today. The former charged with the killing of William L. Annis at the Bay Side Yacht Club over a week ago. The brother charged with being an accessory to the act. By agreement with the district attorney, the arraignment was postponed until next Friday. Captain Hains plainly showed the effect of a week's confinement in a small cell with his brother's unconcerned and calm. The brothers were handcuffed together when brought into court. As he sank into a seat Captain Hains appeared to be on the verge of nervous collapse. He wore the uniform of a captain in the United States Army which he appeared in court.

DYNAMITE CAUSES PANIC IN THE HELPED POLICE CATCH PICKPOCKET

POLITICAL ENEMIES TRY TO INJURE SENATOR PERKINS
Disappointed Office-Seekers Rush Through Resolution at Convention---Held Young Up Before They Would Nominate Him---People of College Town Are for Senior Senator.

Great indignation is being expressed in Berkeley over the action of a group of disappointed politicians in forcing a resolution through the Fifty-second district convention, held on Saturday last, pledging the legislative nominee, C. C. Young, to vote against the re-election of Senator George C. Perkins. Facts are gradually being brought to light which prove conclusively that the action of the convention was manipulated by Fried W. Richardson of the Berkeley Gazette, who has never fully recovered from his disappointment at failing to land the Berkeley postmastership.

SOREHEADS AGAINST PERKINS

Associate with Mr. Richardson was Charles E. Thomas, also a disappointed applicant for the postoffice, who was first announced as a candidate for that office by Mr. Richardson, the editor later growing cold in his support when a fight was started against Thomas George Schmidt, who was removed from the Berkeley postmastership because of inattention to the duties of the office, willingly joined in the fight against Senator Perkins. Another member of the group was Mux Thelan of the Western Pacific Railroad, an ardent reformer whose name fails to appear on the assessment roll of this county.

Mr. Thelan pretends to speak for the railroad he represents, and it remains to be seen if those in authority will acquiesce in the political activities of their subordinate.

BERKELEY IN A BAD WAY

A prominent Republican in Berkeley stated this morning that the College City was suffering from a surfeit of political manipulators who are making Berkeley ridiculous throughout the State.

The assembly candidate has been instructed to cast his vote for a Lincoln-Roosevelt for United States Senator when it is well known by everyone familiar with political conditions that a representative of this reform party has absolutely no chance of being chosen, a sufficient number of regular Republican Senators and Assemblymen having already been nominated as to preclude such a possibility.

FOR THE UNIVERSITY

"Senator Perkins," said the Berkeleyite, "has been a member of the United States Senate for fifteen years, and at the next session, owing to the death of Senator Hale, will be chairman of the Committee on Naval Affairs, by far the most important chairmanship ever given to the Pacific Coast."

His committee assignments generally are the most important, and of particular value to California. His re-election is practically assured, and the result will be that the representative from this district should, he be elected, will go to Sacramento pledged to vote against a man who is in a position to do more for this State than any new man could possibly accomplish, regardless of how brilliant he might be.

"Berkeley is interested in obtaining appropriations for the University, but under the conditions as they now exist Young would be of little value to the State institution, antagonizing all the leaders throughout the State."

While in Parade With Troops in Sydney.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Aug. 24.—There was a grand review at noon today in Centennial park, in which 600 men of the royal navy, 3,000 men of the American fleet, 7,000 of the naval and military forces of New South Wales and 4,000 cadets took part. It was the largest ceremonial parade ever witnessed in Sydney. The vast natural amphitheater was filled with over 100,000 spectators.

The men from the American fleet were given an ovation as they marched past. At the conclusion of the parade they were entertained at luncheon, after which they took street cars for Fort Macquarie.

BERKELEY SOCIETY GIRL GUEST OF A CANNIBAL ROOSEVELT'S FRIEND IS DEAD

Savage Chief Carries U.S. Consul's Wife Five Miles on His Back

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—Eight days in the mountain jungles of Formosa, amid a teeming village of savage head-hunters, the guest of the chief of the tribe, who had a string of notches on his "kill stick" as long as a city block, living in nightly terror of decapitation with only a small convoy of Japanese soldiers to stand between the little party of white people and the cannibalistic cut-throats thousands strong—that was the experience of Mrs. Julian H. Arnold, wife of the American Consul at Formosa, who, before her marriage to Mr. Arnold, was Miss Gertrude Davis, a graduate of the University of California and Berkeley society girl.

Mrs. Arnold has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mills Cohen of the University Savings Bank, living at 2615 Russell street, in Berkeley, the past few weeks. She returns in a few days of leave from her husband, who has recently been transferred from his post at Formosa to Army, China. The mission came as the result of distinguished services for the government.

MONKEYS FOR MEN.
part of this distinguished service consists in his effort to win the savage head-hunters from their cannibalistic ways, a work in which he has been greatly assisted by Mrs. Arnold. As a result of the year and a half missionary work in this direction many of the tribes of savages have given up their thirst for human blood and have been taught to play monkey instead of their fellow tribesmen. It is a common sight to see the savages in the island carrying about scores of monkey heads as evidences of their prowess where before they had spiked on poles and hung at their belts the heads of human kind. In the mission of peace into the village of the head-hunters shortly before Mrs. Arnold's transfer from the island the Berkeley girl was the only white woman in the party, in fact the only white woman who had ever braved the hardships and dangers of such a journey.

CHIEF EXTENDS WELCOME.

The villagers had been notified of the coming of the foreigners and the chief came out ahead with his council of war to extend a welcome.

"He was a great strapping, handsome fellow, fully six feet tall," said Mrs. Arnold, in telling of her exciting experience. "He was dressed in leather from head to foot and at his belt hung the long knife which all the head-hunters carry constantly at their side, sleeping or waking. What makes the knife more blood-curdling a white stone whetted at a strap beside the knife. Whenever these savages stop to talk they immediately begin whetting the knife on the stone, as a testimony of respect, I suppose, and evidence of cordial hospitality. The big chief began to sharpen his knife from force of habit while he addressed our party through an interpreter, and you may imagine it made us shiver."

CARRIED ON BACK.

"But the big fellow was evidently intent on making an impression, for he received us most cordially and carried me on his back five miles up the mountain side to his village, where he stayed eight days in consultation with the leaders of the tribes."

"Four days before our party arrived this same tribe had slain and decapitated scores in a battle with a neighboring tribe. They attempted no violence on our party, however, and before we left we had them pledged to the substitution of monkey warfare in the awful game of head hunting. Of course they may go back to their old practices but gradually the Japanese and the white missionaries are winning them from their savagery to a knowledge of civilization."

As a person offering an extension of regard this same fearless chief who carried Mrs. Arnold five miles up the mountain in a chair strapped to his back gave her his leather suit and his hunting knife and stone to carry back with her to America.

Baron Von Sternburg, German Ambassador, Succumbs to Ailment to Cure Which He Went to Europe.

BARON SPECK VON STERNBURG.

The funeral of the ambassador, The Baroness's father, who is 80 years old, lives on the family estate near Dresden, and it is possible the burial will take place there.

QUESTION OF SUCCESSOR.

BERLIN, Aug. 24.—The foreign office upon receiving the announcement at the death of Baron von Sternburg, as a telegram to Count Hermann von D'Almeida, at Washington, to inform President Roosevelt that the question of a successor to the baron probably would not be settled until Prince von Bismarck, the imperial chancellor, saw the Emperor, which will not be until the second week in September. Various diplomatic changes in prospect are to be expected in the autumn, and among them probably will be a successor to the dead ambassador to Washington.

SOME NAMES MENTIONED.
Some names mentioned for this post are Count von Götzen, the Prussian minister at Hamburg, Herr von Bismarck, the German minister to Madrid, and Dr. von Mumm, Schwarzenstein, the ambassador to Japan. Count von Götzen is a brilliant man, 44 years of age. He has seen a variety of service, including the post of military attaché at Washington from 1896 to 1900. He was Governor of German East Africa for five years. In February of this year he was appointed minister at Hamburg.

FAMOUS SOUTHERN BELLE.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 24.—Although the Baroness von Sternburg, daughter of Louisville about two years as the guest of her uncle, Arthur Langham, the never made this city her home. She was a famous Southern belle, and the Baroness has not visited Louisville since her marriage.

WASHINGTON SHOCKED.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—News of the death of Ambassador von Sternburg caused not only a general feeling of shock to his personal and official friends in Washington.

When he left Washington May 15 for his home in Germany, the ambassador himself seemed to those close to him to have a premonition that he never would return.

It is no detraction from any man to say that the German ambassador, privately and officially was one most popular and highly esteemed members of the diplomatic corps in Washington.

PRESIDENT'S FRIEND.

While a resident of the American capital he became very friendly with a circle of prominent men in civil and official life of whom President Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of State Ales and Gifford Pinchot, chief of the forestry department of the United States, were three. They were together most of the time.

Baron Sternburg, although small of stature, was an accomplished horseman and he and Mr. Roosevelt rode a great deal together. In the long rides and walks which they took about Washington the friendship was cemented.

STORY OF MARRIAGE.

Baron von Sternburg was a welcome guest at the White House. He sustained with the President, probably more intimate, personal and official relations than any other diplomatic accredited to Washington.

During Ambassador Sternburg's official sojourn in Washington he became acquainted with Miss Lillian May Langham of Louisville, Ky., whom he afterwards married.

It is recognized here that the sympathy and devotion of Baroness Sternburg to the ambassador from the time she married him and to prolong his life.

CABLED SYMPATHY.

Acting Secretary Ales today personally expressed his great sorrow at the death of Ambassador von Sternburg. He cabled immediately to the Baroness and also to the German Foreign Office an expression of personal and official condolence. Mr. Ales said in accordance with custom the name of the ambassador would not be made public in Washington.

EMPEROR'S SYMPATHY.

Baroness von Sternburg has received the following telegram from Emperor William:

"I am deeply shaken by the unexpected news of the passing away of your husband and I desire to express to you my heartfelt sympathy. I lose in him a valuable friend and a distinguished diplomatist who has rendered important service to me and the fatherland and whom I will be most difficult to replace. May God give you in your great grief His heavenly consolation."

ONLY COUNTY RESIDENTS TO BE GIVEN COUNTY WORK

Supervisors Adopt Important Resolution at Kelley's Request

"In giving out of public work we ought to protect the people of our own county as well as other counties protect their people," said Supervisor Kelley at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors this morning and all the other members of the board echoed the sentiment and then unanimously adopted the following self-explanatory resolution which was introduced by Supervisor Kelley and which hereafter will govern in the matter of securing work for home people in FOR HOME LABOR.

"Resolved, That all persons now doing work for this county under contract be and they are hereby requested to employ only residents of Alameda county in performing such work, and be it further—

"Resolved That in future all contracts for work awarded by this board shall contain a clause stipulating that only residents of Alameda county shall be employed on such work."

Supervisor Kelley was moved to this action by knowledge of the fact that San Francisco had taken a stand in favor of giving preference to residents of that place in the carrying out of public contracts. The action of the officials of that city was set forth in a clipping from THE TRIBUNE which Mr. Kelley handed to Chairman Mitchell and which the latter read as follows:

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—Only residents of the United States who are employed by the city on public buildings and work to be done with the money received from the sale of municipal bonds, according to an order which has been issued by the Board of Public Works. This is in strict conformity with a section of the city charter which, however, has not been enforced heretofore.

The stipulation that only citizens of the United States who are residents of San Francisco can be employed on public work will be inserted in all contracts under the new bond issue of $18,000,000.

CALL AN ELECTION FOR OCEAN VIEW

Supervisors Decide to Give the People There Opportunity to Express Their Desires.

The long-drawn out question of the incorporation of the proposed city of Ocean View was settled by the Board of Supervisors this morning, calling a special election for Tuesday, September 15, for the purpose of enabling the people interested, one way or the other, in the project to vote on the subject of incorporation.

Judge Mortimer Smith renewed his request that the property of Gill, the florist, be not included in the proposed incorporation.

OBJECTION MADE.

Supervisor Mitchell said that if the request should be granted it would leave a quarter of a mile of road which would not be cared for by any person unless Mr. Gill should assume such responsibility.

Ballantine, who appeared for the proposed incorporators, said such a promise would not be binding.

WANTS NO MORE SUBURBS.

Supervisor Irvine said he disliked greatly to have the number of incorporations increased around Oakland, because they tended to delay the eventual establishment of a city and county government. At the same time he was desirous of giving the people a chance to express their views on any and every subject, and he moved, accordingly, that a date be set for an election on the proposed incorporation. The motion prevailed unanimously.

PREFERRED JAIL TO GOING HOME

Lad Declares He'd Rather Be in Prison Than Face Relatives in Italy.

A sensation was caused in Judge O'Brien's court room this morning when Alberto Profumo, a 16-year-old Italian lad, declared that he would rather have the long and hard time in the penitentiary than back to Italy, whence he came here a short time ago.

Profumo, who professed ignorance of the English language, was taken before Judge O'Brien on a charge of larceny, and during the second time that he had been imprisoned since his arrival in the United States. In response to a question put to him by P. Merbie, an interpreter, asking the lad if he would agree and go back to Italy, Profumo replied "si, si," and nodded his head vigorously. Asked why he did not want to return to his native land, the boy replied that he was dishonored by the two failures and did not want to face his family again.

SENT TO REFORM SCHOOL.

Judge O'Brien then stated that he was sorry there was not a law which would permit him to have the young Italian deported, "for," he declared, "I do not think it right that our nation and our communities should be called upon to bear the expense of keeping a criminal who has just come from another country, and who has no good developed a criminal instinct." No statute of international law permits such a deportation, however, so the judge reluctantly committed the boy to the Preston reformatory there to remain until he is 21 years of age.

PANIC FOLLOWS A STREET CAR CRASH

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—A stampede followed the collision of two street cars at Wentworth avenue and Twenty-sixth street yesterday and seven persons were injured, two of them perhaps fatally.

The accident was caused by a misunderstanding between the motorman of the two cars. The Wentworth avenue car struck the Twenty-sixth street car in the middle, crushing in the side and derailing it.

The passengers imprisoned within the cars broke windows, tore at the wire nettings and crushed one another in an attempt to escape.

The most seriously injured were Edward King, conductor of the Twenty-sixth street car, and Frank Wilkie, conductor of the Wentworth avenue car.

Sternburg's death was inflammation of the lungs.

BARON'S ILLNESS.

The ailment that resulted in the death of Baron Speck von Sternburg has been described as lupus, growing out of an injury resulting from an accident that occurred while the Baron was in the service of his government in India. He made a brave fight against the spread of the malady and his plucky effort to prevent the disease from spoiling his diplomatic career has won the keen sympathy of the Washington people.

His Diamond Dazzled Her Eyes

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Capt. of Police Duke took a stroll on Fillmore street last evening and in his Sunday best, having put aside all thought of police duty and bent on having a good time. In his shirt bosom shone out a large diamond of which Duke is very proud, and incidentally this caused a great deal of trouble for pretty Rena De Vere, who happened along.

Rena is from Reno, and she has a good thing when she sees it. Also she has a particular liking for a handsome ace. She espied the captain in his lion's dress and straightway there was a sudden drop of her eyelids, and what Duke called a look darted forth from the beautiful brown eyes.

This was too much for the police instincts of the captain, and when the offense was repeated he set forth to take fair Rena into custody.

In court today, she stoutly declared that her eye had merely been dazzled by the beauty of the stone.

BULL STAMPEDES CROWD IN PARK

Panic Prevails While Two Nice-men Struggle for House to Capture Animal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—A mad bull, rushing suddenly up the main driveway of Golden Gate park yesterday, sent the crowd of merry makers fleeing in a panic. Women hurled fences, run-amids gathered their charges in their arms and sped in terror and the crowd trampled flower beds and shrubs in the frantic endeavor to get out of harm's way.

The bull entered the park from the main entrance off Stonyon street at about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when it was crowded and stampeded the people. In close pursuit of the bull were two mounted policemen, risking their lives to head it off.

PANIC INTENSIFIED.

The panic was intensified by the passing vehicles which were driven to the scene, the drivers, all ignorant of the danger, being forced to come to a sudden stop and drive back again as fast as the horses could travel. The bull repeatedly got away from the mounted policemen and on every occasion would put his head down and charge toward groups of persons along the driveway.

In the melee clothes were torn, hands and faces lacerated and numerous women became hysterical. It was not until after a struggle that lasted more than an hour that the bull was roped.

Between the policeman, the bull was led away, fighting every inch of the road, to a corral at Thirty-sixth avenue and C streets.

TAKEN TO PRISON FOR PUBLIC SPOONING

Five Colored Women of West Oakland Arrested for Making Love on School Steps.

Driven from their haunts in West Oakland by the repeated warnings of the police, five colored women last night took up a station on the steps of the Grove school to carry on their amorous and spooning. While in the close embrace of their favored partners and while sweetly singing the "Moo Song" from the "Society Circus" they were swooped down upon by the police and unceremoniously hauled off to the City Prison where they are held pending trial on charges of misdemeanor.

NO MORE SPOONING.

The chief has gone forth from police headquarters that there is to be no more spooning on the benches of the park, no sitting on the street corners and no love-making in public places. As the steps of the Grove school were considered private and not public property, it is considered that the women, who gave the names of Cora Pitts, Ruth May, Ethel Clark, Julia Sanders and Mabel Wilcox, were violating the law.

IN TROUBLE BEFORE.

Cora Pitts has frequently been in trouble with the police. When taken into custody last night, she was prepared for trouble. A fatherly hunch being found, she was taken into custody. She was taken into custody. She was taken into custody.

In fact they have arranged for a most enjoyable outing.

TRACTION COMPANY IN ARREARS ON BRIDGE

County Auditor Pierce completed this morning the Board of Supervisors this morning that the Oakland Traction Company was in arrears in the sum of more than $8000 in the matter of its share of defraying the cost of maintaining the Webster street bridge.

Supervisor Rowe said that there was a hole in the bridge which had been made by cars of the company in question. This was due, he said, to the fact that, in broadening the track, the company had not placed under the rails, strings such as had been in use when the narrow-gauge tracks lay upon the bridge.

BERKELEY TAX RATE IS LOW

Although College Town Has More Money Than Ever Before, Deficit Is Threatened.

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—According to budget figures completed this morning by the Board of Trustees, Berkeley will have the lowest tax rate in the State for the fiscal year beginning July last. The revised figures fix a total tax levy of 50 cents as against $1 for the year 1907-1908. The decrease in the rate of the redemption and reduction of certain bond funds, the school funds of 1900 and 1902, the municipal fund of 1900 and the electric light fund of 1900.

The present charter of the city of Berkeley is limited to 75 cents. The extra figures are for sinking fund, interest and library purposes, the latter provided for by special levy. The reduction of the present year in no wise affects the general municipal or school income. This is divided in the proportion of 1 to 20 cents, and as the assessment roll will show an increase of over $100,000, the result will be money available than last year. The assessment figures now being tabulated by Town Assessor H. J. Seales will reach $2,000,000, as compared with $1,800,000 for the year just closed.

DISTRIBUTION OF TAXES

General Fund	27.27	27.27
Sinking Fund	18.18	18.18
High School	12.12	12.12
Low School	12.12	12.12
Electric Light Fund	1.01	1.01
School Fund of 1901	2.02	2.02
School Fund of 1902	3.03	3.03
Municipal Fund (General)	13.13	13.13
(1900)	1.01	1.01
Total	100.00	100.00

MORE MONEY.

The school last year received about $83,500 and the municipality about $121,200. The increase in the assessment roll will make these amounts this year respectively $87,000 and $130,000.

According to Town Auditor Hanson, the town is threatened with a deficit already, although the new year is just beginning. The general fund is depleted because taxes are not yet a use and the schedule of expenditures under way promises to exhaust the $10,000 available for town purposes before the year is out. The same condition is likely to be met in the other departments. The town is growing in excess of its income and the taxes are not yet a use and the schedule of expenditures under way promises to exhaust the $10,000 available for town purposes before the year is out.

WARSHIPS ON WAY TO SAMOA

Seven Cruisers Towing Seven Destroyers Leave San Francisco for South Seas by Way of Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Headed by the West Virginia, flying the pennant of Rear Admiral Swinburne, with the torpedo destroyer Preble off the port bow, seven cruisers of the Pacific fleet and seven destroyers sailed out of the Golden Gate today on a cruise to Hawaii and Samoa.

The Whipple, which went to Mare Island last night to have a new dynamo installed, joined the fleet outside the heads. The black lines of the small torpedo craft formed a sharp contrast to the big buff and white cruisers that loomed up above them. In the blue waters and dazzling sunlight the fleet presented a beautiful picture as it slowly steamed through the harbor from man-of-war row, south of Goat Island, in single column formation with a destroyer off the port bow of each.

DESTROYERS IN TOW.

A distance of 1000 yards separating the cruisers in each column, they will tow the torpedo destroyers. The weather was fine and the sea calm, making it easy for the cruisers to pick up their tows.

The hour for sailing was fixed for 10 o'clock, and the ships got under way just 10 minutes after that time.

The fleet is scheduled to arrive at Honolulu September 2, remain there eight days and then tow the destroyers in Pago Pago, Samoa, reaching there October 7 and leaving that port for San Diego on October 17, the day that the Atlantic battleship fleet arrives in Japanese waters.

The destroyers will have steam on one boiler in emergency, and should the massive pump breakers break each cruiser is provided with a supply of five-inch steel cable.

BADLY HURT IN BUGGY SMASHUP

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Griffith Unconscious When Picked Up in Street.

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—D. T. Griffith, an electrician, and his wife were thrown from a buggy at the corner of San Pablo avenue and Delaware street and seriously injured. The horse sailed at a passing car and ran into a telephone pole.

Mrs. Griffith struck on her head, sustaining an ugly laceration of the temple and severe bruises about the shoulders and arms. Griffith struck on his shoulder, tearing the ligaments on his right arm and dislocating his collarbone. When bystanders rushed to their rescue both were unconscious.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

Mrs. Griffith was hurried to the Roosevelt hospital by Dr. J. J. Bennett, who happened to be passing in his ambulance. An emergency ambulance was dispatched by the police to the assistance of the husband.

Griffith lives on Christiana street, near Ghilman, in the Perilla Park section. He has a store at 2045 University avenue.

E. W. CLAYTON OF SAN JOSE IS DEAD

SAN JOSE, Aug. 24.—Edward W. Clayton, a prominent society and business man of San Jose, who was married less than three months ago, died at his residence, 471 First street, at 12:30 o'clock yesterday morning. His bride, who yesterday became his widow, was Miss Frances Edwards of Winter, a graduate of the San Francisco hospital and of the San Jose High School.

Clayton was suddenly taken ill two weeks ago while playing golf on the Linda Vista links. Among the physicians summoned to attend him was Dr. S. E. Moffatt of San Francisco. Clayton was the president of James W. Clayton & Co., real estate dealers, and a son of the late James W. Clayton, a prominent Californian.

PRISONERS DASH FOR LIBERTY

Three Desperate Men Overpower Guards at Elko, Nevada, and Forty-Five Break for Freedom.

RENO, Aug. 24.—One of the most daring jail breaks ever known in this State occurred yesterday afternoon at Elko, when several desperate characters overpowered Under Sheriff Harris and Elmore and forty-five prisoners dashed for liberty. All were recaptured before midnight with the exception of two men who are now being pursued by a posse.

Shortly before 4 o'clock Harris and Elmore entered the prison with the evening meal and while they had their backs turned for a moment three men jumped on Harris and several others overpowered Elmore.

A lively fight ensued and the prisoners were getting the best of it when a colored trusty ran into the street and yelled for assistance.

The remaining forty-five prisoners took no part in the fight, but immediately dashed for liberty and aid arrived before the desperate characters who started the jail break escaped from the deputies.

Sheriff Clark and a large number of citizens rescued the under sheriff and recaptured all the prisoners within two hours with the exception of two men. One of these is a man named Smith awaiting trial for murder. A mounted posse is now out and their capture is expected hourly, although a battle is feared, as it is thought the men will arm themselves.

The remaining forty-five prisoners took no part in the fight, but immediately dashed for liberty and aid arrived before the desperate characters who started the jail break escaped from the deputies.

The Republican County Ticket.

The ticket placed in the field by the Republican county convention is composed of excellent material. All the nominees are representative men of character and standing, and are worthy of public confidence. Their election, therefore, should be a foregone conclusion, and we have no doubt that the poll will disclose a large majority in their favor.

It is hardly necessary to tell the people of Alameda county that the candidates for the Superior bench are eminently qualified for the offices which they have been nominated to fill. They have abundantly demonstrated their fitness for the positions they occupy. Prior to entering the judiciary, Judges Melvin, Waste and Harris filled positions of public trust with honor to themselves and to the satisfaction of the public. On the bench they have acquitted themselves in a manner to amply justify the confidence reposed in them. Having earned the confidence and esteem of the entire community, their renomination was simply an expression of the popular endorsement their course has received. Their re-election is a mere matter of form.

The legislative ticket is, on the whole, an excellent one. Both the nominees for the State Senate have served with credit in the Assembly and can be relied upon to give a good account of themselves in the upper branch of the Legislature. The Assembly nominees challenge comparison. They are capable, upright men who will serve the people well. Alameda usually sends a strong delegation to Sacramento, and the men named by the Republicans this year are of a class to uphold the dignity and importance of the county.

The nominees for Supervisor are both good men. While they encountered sharp personal rivalries in the contest for the nomination, nothing can be said against either. Both are men of business training and association and are highly reputable in every way. They will bring to the county board capacity and a conscientious desire to serve the public interests faithfully. Their merits are so well known that their election is beyond question.

Indeed, the ticket, as a whole, deserves the support of every Republican voter, for it represents a high personal standard, and in general fitness cannot be matched by the nominees of any other party.

Dr. Baker on the Non-Attendance of Men at Church.

Rev. E. E. Baker, the retiring pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, was correct as far as he went in giving reasons for the declining attendance of men at religious service, but there is one potent reason he failed to specify. The cold and indifferent welcome usually given the stranger or the occasional church attendant is of course a deterrent, but political speechifying in the pulpit is a still greater. Personal detraction is another. If clergymen were not so ready to condemn without taking the trouble to ascertain the facts, not so prone to impute evil to others, and so disposed to air their political and personal prejudices instead of preaching the love and forgiveness of God, the charity of Christ and the blessings of peace, humanity and brotherhood, they would claim a larger masculine hearing. But instead of cultivating broadness of mind, catholicity of spirit and generosity of judgment, too many run to narrowness and bitterness, and to censorious, and often personal, discussion of secular affairs without knowledge of the facts which they presume to set forth. Instead of trying to convert the sinner to righteousness by delivering the message of the Saviour in the spirit that it was promulgated, they constitute themselves judges of men and things, and deliver edicts rank with intolerance and prejudice. There is too much of the spirit of the Pharisee who thanked God he was not as the Publican, his neighbor, in the pulpit, and too little appreciation of the meaning of the parable of the Levite and the Good Samaritan; too often is the commandment "Thou shalt not bear false witness" forgotten. "The greatest of these is charity," said Jesus. He did not mean the mis-called charity of almsgiving, but the charity that is just and generous in its judgments, the charity that concedes the benefit of the doubt, is forbearing and free from the rancor of bigotry and the self-righteous, self-applauding spirit of the Pharisee. If the pulpit was more humanly tender and compassionate in its teaching and the congregations less disposed to regard themselves as groups of the elect above and apart from the mass surrounding them there would be a deeper and stronger note of fellowship in the religious life of the community. "Judge not lest ye be judged," saith the Old Testament. Forgiveness of sinners is the lesson of the new. But unfortunately too many of the clergy regard it as their mission to drive sinners away from repentance and companionship with the righteous, and hence their sanctuaries are frigid and repellent to thousands who long for communion with higher and purer things, in answer to the craving of the spirit for the light and warmth that toucheth men's hearts with the radiance and mercy of God's glory and tenderness.

So long as the Republican party remains in power it is powerless to regenerate itself. It cannot attack wrongdoing in high places without disgracing many of its prominent members, and it therefore needs opiates more than the surgeon's knife.—Bryan's Speech of Acceptance.

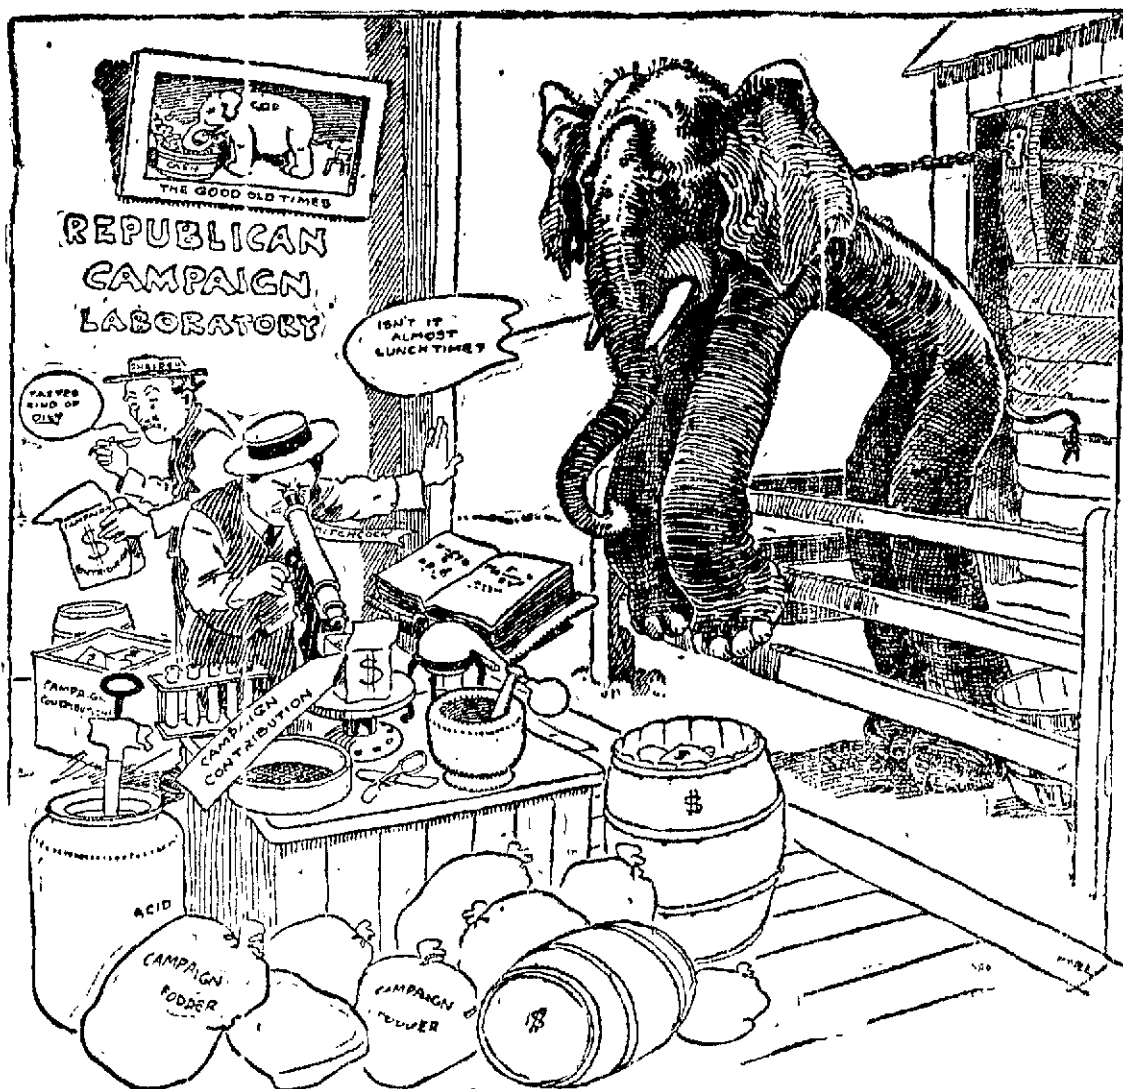

A most shallow thing for a Presidential candidate to say. In brief, that all the big malefactors are Republicans and none of them Democrats. And Mr. Bryan therefore suggests that the only way to punish high crime is to elect Democrats.

If refutation were needed it would only be necessary to remember Burton of Kansas, a Republican; Mitchell of Oregon, a Republican; members of the House of Representatives indicted; high officials in the postoffice department; big leaders in New York State, all punished by Republicans.

The suffragettes did not take the trouble to ask the Democratic county convention to endorse their demand for the ballot, but they appealed to the conventions of the Republican and Independence parties to put a woman suffrage plank in their platforms. Have the ladies come to the conclusion that the Democrats don't count any more? Really, they administered a severe snub to the party of Jefferson, Jackson, Cleveland, Bryan and the Spanish moss whiskers of John W. Kern.

The Alameda county Democrats adopted a high-sounding platform and decided to go it alone this year. For several years they have been fusing with the labor party without result. Their courage in naming a complete ticket is to be commended, but when the votes are counted they are likely to realize how weak they are in voting strength. A comparison of nominees would be invidious, not to say odious.

The Voluble Mrs. Hains.

While the killing of W. E. Annis by Captain Peter C. Hains bears every appearance of having been a cold-blooded assassination, the statements Mrs. Hains is giving out to the newspapers are not of a tenor to raise that lady in public estimation. She may have been bullied into confessing an offense she never committed, but her conduct must have in some way justified the suspicions of her husband and his relatives and friends. Had it been blameless, it is inconceivable that Mrs. Hains could have been induced by threats or persuasion into signing away her good name. But what she says in her numerous newspaper interviews conveys a distinctly bad impression. She is too warm in her praises of Annis and too vindictive toward her husband. Besides, the last words of Annis are a moral confirmation of her guilt. In his signed dying statement, Annis said he did nothing to "irritate Hains at the time" (of the shooting), but he refused to declare himself innocent of wrongdoing with Mrs. Hains. He merely said "I have nothing to say." This is not legal proof that Hains was justified in his suspicions, but to every thoughtful person it is the strongest kind of negative proof that he had done precisely what Hains accused him of doing. Had he been innocent, he would have said so with emphasis. That he declined to exonerate himself and Mrs. Hains carries the irresistible inference that while he would not acknowledge his culpability, his conscience would not permit him to die with a lie on his lips. His failure to deny under the circumstances amounted to a confession of his fault. Therefore Mrs. Hains had better hold her peace. Her husband may be a brute and a blackguard, but the less she has to say in condemnation of him and in praise of Annis the better for her reputation. Annis was murdered in a cowardly manner, shot down like a dog without warning or opportunity to defend himself, but he died as the fool dieth. He had soiled the home of his friend, and whatever penalties the law may rightfully claim, his claim to sympathy is forfeited. By talking too vociferously Mrs. Hains is merely giving proof of the oft-tested fact that folly and frailty are generally intimately associated.

WOMAN IS THROWN IN FRONT OF A CAR

Brutal Murder in New York
When Two Unknown Men Cause Woman's Death.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Attacked by two men, who escaped without detection, a woman about 45 years old, who has not been identified, was choked and was thrown in front of a rapidly moving trolley car in Amsterdam avenue at Nineteenth street early yesterday morning. The wheels passed over her body and she was instantly killed.

The woman was crossing Amsterdam avenue and had almost reached the car track when two men of stalwart build, who had been walking behind her, suddenly seized her. One caught her handbag which was suspended by a chain from her wrist, while the other cut her across the throat with both hands. Thomas Murphy, the motorman, afterwards told the police that he saw the three apparently fighting desperately just as his car came toward them. He applied his brake and swung the lever around to bring it to a stop, but the distance was too short and, as he saw the two highwaymen liberally throw the now half-nude woman under the wheels. At the same instant they fled as fast as they could run along Nineteenth street in the direction of the Hudson river.

S. N.; Stockton street after Commodore Stockton, U. S. N.; Jones street after Commodore A. Catesby, U. S. N.; commanding the fleet in Pacific waters; Dupont street after Captain Dupont, U. S. N., late rear-admiral in command of the fleet that bombarded Fort Sumpter, etc. Taylor, Clay, Webster and Fillmore streets have well-known historic references, but the naval names are, I think, less understood as of men who won prominence in early California naval records. General Sherman, who was at one time a banker and resident of San Francisco, seems to have been overlooked in naming prominent streets of the city. A. F. R.

SOCIETY SMART SET

Wedding of Prof. Haring and Miss Moody
an Event of Saturday Evening

Reception
by Prominent Musicians to Be Given in Berkeley This Evening

The wedding of Miss Grace Moody, daughter of Mrs. E. P. Moody of Santa Cruz, to Professor Clarence E. Haring was solemnized at the home of John Service, in Berkeley, Saturday evening. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Adelbert S. Coats of the Berkeley Evangelical Baptist Church, a close friend of the bridegroom.

The bride was attended by Miss Irene Service as maid of honor, and little Carol Gear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis G. Gear, was the ring bearer.

The following girl friends were the bridesmaids: Miss Gene Cunningham, San Bernardino, Grace Wilshire, Los Angeles; Mildred Clark, Santa Cruz, Elizabeth Wood, Hollywood, Helen Flynn, Livermore and Eleanor Ogren of Berkeley.

The wedding march was played by Ward Esterly, violinist, accompanied by Miss Ruth Ogren.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk with the conventional red Miss Service was given in pale green crepe de chine, and the bridesmaids were dressed alike in white with green sashes and armbands, carrying Cecil Bruner roses. The bride's gifts to her attendants were gold stick pins, encrusted with the initials "M." and "H."

The bridesmaids led the wedding procession forming an aisle with ribbons of white tulle and asparagus fern. Just preceding the ceremony which was solemnized at an improvised altar of white sweet peas and ferns, Mr. Buchanan of San Francisco sang "O Promise Me."

After the wedding ceremony, the guests were invited to the dining room where a sumptuous repast was served. The decorations were very dainty, being white tulle, white sweet peas and strings of white wedding bells. Professor Haring is associated with the department of bacteriology at the University of California.

A honeymoon trip will be made through the East, the young couple returning about the first of January when they will make their home in Berkeley.

SONG RECITAL.

About fifty of the friends of Mrs. Maurice C. Couchat enjoyed a delightful song recital at her home on Santa Clara avenue, Friday. The accompanist was Miss Sadie Clapp and Miss Edith Ross contributed several violin numbers. Mrs. Couchat sang a program, including classics from the French and English.

Among those present were Mrs. Adams Parker, Mrs. Eugene Jenkins, Mrs. George E. Young, Mrs. F. H. Young Jr., Mrs. E. H. Young, Mrs. W. P. Thomas, Mrs. E. B. Clapp, Mrs. John Ledyard, Mrs. Henry L. Clapp, Mrs. Edwin J. Thomas, Mrs. Edgar Wood, Mrs. C. H. White, Mrs. L. J. Taitken, Mrs. E. A. Engwer, Mrs. Alfred Mousnier, Mrs. Ernest Porter, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. Walter Hughes, Mrs. Stewart Middlemas, Mrs. Ledyard, Mrs. Gardener, Mrs. Jessie Wilson Taylor and the Misses Mand and Louise Clapp, Isabel Frier, Blanche Tisdale, Agnes Judd, Mary Smith, Florence Parker, Lura Smith, Elizabeth Westgate, M. Huff and Bertha Waite.

BACH CHOIR REHEARSALS.

On Thursday evening the Berkeley section of the Bach Choir will meet with the Oakland section at the First Presbyterian Church on Fourteenth street. The Berkeley section of the choir numbers 175 while that in Oakland has only reached a membership of forty. It may not be generally understood of what inestimable value this choir is a singer. The best music, that of Bach, is sung, and under the direction of a master who has not his equal on the coast. Unless the membership of the Oakland section be increased it will have to be abandoned and the rehearsal on Thursday will decide its fate. It will be unfortunate if enough members cannot be enrolled to keep the section working through the winter, for a failure means the loss of an unusual opportunity.

MUSICIANS ENTERTAIN.

This evening Mrs. Imogene Sanderson and Miss Elizabeth Simpson will be the hostesses at an elaborate reception in honor of Miss Christina Ross who has just returned from a two years' study abroad; and Miss Jennie Slater of New York, who is the guest of her sister Mrs. John Rohlf.

The reception is to be given at the attractive Swiss Chalet of Mrs. Sanderson on Lookout avenue, North Berkeley. Miss Slater is an exceedingly gifted woman and possessed of most charming personality. During her short visit with her sister she won many friends, who regret her departure this week for the East. Miss Slater has the distinction of being decorated by the classic European society, "Societe Filamonic Florentina."

leave shortly for Los Angeles, where she is to be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Reed, during the winter months. The Reed home on Telegraph avenue has always been center for the young people with whom Mrs. Reed is exceedingly popular. Now that the young members of the family are married and settled in homes of their own, Mrs. Reed will take the opportunity of visiting a bit. Mr. and Mrs. William Grosskopf, Miss Elva Reed, have taken apartments at the Key Route Inn for the winter months, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reed are delightfully located in their Piedmont home. It is not at all unlikely that Mr. Reed will spend considerable time this winter in the South.

DELIGHTFUL HOME PARTY.

One of the most enjoyable luncheons of the past week was that given by Mrs. Robert Hilliard Collins at her beautiful new country home at Mulford ranch, San Leandro, on Thursday. Covers were laid for twelve. The color scheme of the dining room was yellow, masses of brilliant gallerias and feathery grasses being used in artistic profusion.

Among the guests from San Francisco were Mrs. Thomas Kierulff, Mrs. Ward Dwight, Mrs. George Brummel, Miss Clara Rawlins, Miss Ellen Page and Miss Nellie Boyd, Miss Ruth Collins, Mrs. Churchill Clark of Alhambra and Miss Caroline Foster McEllean of San Jose.

Miss Boyd and Miss McEllean are house guests of Mrs. Collins at present. After a three hours' delicious menu, the guests repaired to the music and ball room, which occupies the entire third story of this magnificent home, and enjoyed an hour of music, Miss Page and Mrs. Dwight delighting a most appreciative audience with their singing.

Mrs. Collins entertained over the week-end besides those already mentioned as house guests: Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Brodrick, Miss Ellen B. Page, Miss Edna J. Morahan, Dr. Herbert T. Morse and Dr. James F. Pressley.

The principal event of the house party was a dinner given these popular young society people on Sunday.

EMULATE WATSON.

Mrs. Will Horstman of East Oakland has as her guests the Miss Camille and Leone Allison of San Jose. The young ladies walked the entire distance from San Jose to this city, making but one stop at Millbrae, where they remained during the first night. They were a day and a half covering the trip. Last Friday the young ladies, accompanied by Mrs. Horstman and Mrs. Anderson, walked out to the home of Joseph Miller, The Misses Allison are training, and anticipate making a walking trip to Mount Hamilton in the near future.

FINDS WILD COFFEE IN SOUTH

Descendants of Trees Planted in Sixteenth Century by Spaniards Scattered Over Hills in Matilija Canyon.

OXNARD, Cal., Aug. 24. — James Leonard, a rancher, has discovered coffee growing in the Matilija canyon. The trees are six or eight feet high and have every appearance of coffee trees found in Brazil, Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands. They are scattered over the mountains and are called "yerba ossa" by the Mexicans, who have never associated them with coffee trees of tropical climates.

In the sixteenth century a group of Spanish adventurers entered Matilija canyon and tributary country and they left many signs of their visit. It is thought that the coffee trees are descendants of some planted at that time.

BURNING SERMON IS DR. BAKER'S FAREWELL

"Is it Any Wonder Men Do Not Come to Your Church?" He Asks, and Adds: "Cast Out the Pharisee; Give Him No Place."

The Rev. E. B. Baker of the First Presbyterian Church last night preached his farewell sermon, in which he scored denominational competition between churches and the treatment accorded men who visited different places of worship for the first time.

"I am not surprised that men do not come to church," said Dr. Baker. "It is more of a marvel to me that any man with wisdom and common sense does more than that he does not. It is a constant surprise to me that any is willing to come to church Sunday after Sunday, and put up with the treatment accorded after experience has taught me is measured out to some."

"About this very church a man once said to a friend of mine: 'I tried to come to go to that big church at the corner of Fourteenth and Franklin streets, but I never try it again. Nobody wants me there. Nobody gave me a good seat. Nobody ministered to me to see me or tried in any other way to make me welcome.'"

CAST OUT PHARISEES.
"Another thing that keeps the men out of the church is the vast difference between your profession and your practice. The minister is a Pharisee, and to a great extent the power and popularity of your church, so do you who occupy the pews determine it. Yet you are willing to cast out the former if he is impure or wicked, and you permit the Pharisee to sit in the pew next to you. Cast him out. Give him no place among you. Put men and women in your pews who are as good on week days as they are on Sundays, and they will do as much as a good minister to fill your church to the door."

CHURCH IS BANKRUPT.
"Money said in the book of Numbers to his father-in-law, 'Come, thou with us and we will do you good.' What good do you do to the man to whom you extend a similar invitation? If you take an inventory of your church roll, if you count your business men and bankers and professional men, your men of power in other words, you will not find them. This church today is absolutely bankrupt. The combined power of outer attractions and of inner competition with other denominations, of professing one thing and of practicing another, has shown it of its vitality."

"Is it any wonder the men do not come? There have been many things to attract them away. Within the church the attractions have been competition with other denominations and absolutely Pharisaism."

RELIGIOUS COMPETITION.
"Religious competition has helped to keep alive the diversity of religions that is the bane of our church existence. We are engaged in an everlasting effort to beat the other fellow in the church around the corner. If we can get ahead of him, no matter in what way, we are immensely pleased. What is this competition but war? And Sherman has said, 'War is hell. No where will you find a war that is more nearly the infernal than this. It is hell and you can make nothing else of it.'"

"You send your missionaries abroad, and what is the answer to them the heathen makes: 'You have fifty-seven varieties of religion; we have fifty-seven varieties of paganism; how are we to choose?'"

The Rev. Dr. Baker has been pastor of the church for six years, but resigned his pastorate about two months ago upon returning from an Eastern trip. He has not yet intimated what his future work will be, but it is stated that he is to leave the ministry. Last evening he took for his subject "Why Men Do Not Go to Church" and professed it by a Scripture reading of the Epistle to the Romans, "O Lord, I thank thee that I am not as this people."

TAFT DEPLORES SPRINGFIELD RIOTS

Presidential Candidate, in Letter, Calls Them "Fiendish Work of Disgraceful Mob."

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 24.—G. W. Sanford of this city has received a letter from Judge William H. Taft which gives the Republican presidential candidate's views on the recent Springfield riots. The letter is in reply to a query addressed by Sanford to Mr. Taft. It says:

"Every good citizen in the country must deplore the fiendish work of the disgraceful mob that has brought the city of Springfield to sorrow. Such an outbreak of lawlessness and bitter race prejudices makes the lover of his country sad. It should serve those in favor of improving the administration of the criminal law to more earnest effort, because I am confident if all charges of crime were promptly investigated and the convicted criminals punished, there would be much less temptation to the formation of such lawless and cruel mobs as that which ran riot in Springfield."

WOMAN WINS $10,000 AT ROULETTE WHEEL.

RENO, Nev., Aug. 24.—Nan Hickey of San Francisco, the famous Rawhide roulette gambler, opened a game Saturday night and after two hours' play won $10,000 from John Flynn, a mine manager. Nan's appearance as a keeper of a game of chance has been the cause of much comment among those who have tried unsuccessfully to suppress gambling in this State. The authorities called upon by the legislators to prevent the woman's play have refused to act, and now the church people may take their movement to the Legislature for the abolition of gambling in Nevada. Miss Rooney began her operations in Rawhide two months before Mrs. Hickey visited the camp. Miss Hickey was interested in the life of the woman gambler and has written her since returning to London.

WIFE TURNS ACCUSER, BUT—KISS MAY SEAL THE BREAK

Husband's Charge Shocks Mrs. MacNevin, Who Makes Caustic Reply

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Declaring her husband was in the habit of "kissin' and dashin' women at road-houses and that she would take every step to assert her rights when the time came, Mrs. Gertrude Piper-MacNevin, whose husband, William H. MacNevin, announced his intention of suing for a divorce, has been in all her home in San Mateo, where she went immediately after leaving her mother, Mrs. J. H. Dockweiler, at 531 Clayton street. She cannot understand why her husband should attempt to divorce her, and yesterday and present her version of the breach in their domestic relations.

Dockweiler, at 531 Clayton street. She cannot understand why her husband should attempt to divorce her, and yesterday and present her version of the breach in their domestic relations.

American Girl's Beauty and Ability Win Foreign Critics

PARIS.—After studying abroad, where her beauty and talent have attracted much attention, Miss Helen Freeman returned to America to begin her stage career. It is said that Charles Frohman's attention was called to her while he was last in Europe and that after an interview he decided to give her an opportunity to make her debut. Those who know Miss Freeman declare that she is extremely versatile and they predict for her a great success. She has a pleasing manner and a voice of great range and sweetness. During her stay on the continent she has performed herself in French and has had advantage of the best masters in the histrionic art. Her tutors speak highly of her capacity for the stage.

SWIMMING GIVES YOU

HEALTH
GOOD FIGURE

Miss Annette Kellerman, of Australia, is remarkable for her prowess in the water and for her beauty and charm. In the water, attired in her snug jersey swimming shirt and trunks, Miss Kellerman has a figure which Venus herself might envy. Gowned for the street she has the carriage and air which the smartest of the smart might envy. The average genius in athletics or the arts is apt to be a bump. Miss Kellerman escapes this charge; she is gifted with both beauty and style.

AMERICANS CLAIM.
Miss Kellerman is known as the Australian mermaid, but her mother was a Cincinnati girl, so Americans can take pride of this girl's achievements. She seemed as if born to the water, and her only trainer has been her father, now manager for her in all public exhibitions and races. At twenty-two Miss Kellerman can readily state that she has never met defeat at the hands of any other swimmer with whom she has been in competition. At fifteen she won the amateur mile championship in Australian salt water in 22 minutes, beating all former amateur records of women by 3

MISS ANNETTE KELLERMAN Champion Swimmer

Overtraining weakens the woman swimmer and under her for long-time endurance work in the water. I prefer a mixed diet—meat, vegetables and only one sort of liquid in a day; that is, I do not mix coffee and tea, milk and wine. And I get all the sleep I possibly can.

NOURISHMENT IN SWIM.
"During my long-distance races I always eat and drink to keep up my strength. That is, my father and attendants follow me in a boat and serve me with some sort of nourishment every half hour. This may be cocoa or beef tea with toast, and I can eat and drink with one hand while keeping up my progress with the other arm."

"I hardly know what aches and pains are, save when I try to swim in very rough water, when I am subject to sea-sickness precisely as a person in a boat." In long swims her favorite stroke is the double over-arm, combining the characteristics of the "crawl" with the trudgion. In Boston this year athletes have been greatly interested in a stroke which is all Miss Kellerman's own—a peculiar over-hand movement which after each turn brings her face to face with those watching her from behind.

RAISED $75,000 TO AID WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE.

LONDON.—Mrs. Pethick Lawrence, treasurer of the Women's Social and Political Union, and joint editor with her husband, of "Votes for Women," has raised in two years $75,000 with which to carry on the work in which she believes. Mrs. Lawrence is a splendid speaker, and equally good as a writer on social questions. Her per-MRS P LAWRENCE suasive powers are one of Mrs. Lawrence's chief assets. "What I like about her," said a man in the crowd, "is that she does not force her arguments down your throat in an I-won't-be-contradicted from fashion. She tackles the problem from your point of view as well as her own, and you have to admit in the end that there is a lot in what she says."

LOOKS BEST IN BATHING COSTUMES CREATES FURORE, BUT ENTIRELY MODEST, WHILE SHE SPORTS WITH NEPTUNE

PARIS.—Lady Paget, daughter of the late Baron Stevens of New York, is a most welcome visitor at that truly fashionable watering place, Deauville. She is receiving much attention; many entertainments are being given to her. Lady Paget is seen often with Mlle Desaint Sauveur, who, while always gowned superbly, looks best in her bathing costume. They have created quite a furore at Deauville, for, while they are entirely modest, they prove that a pretty, graceful woman can so remain while she sports with Neptune.

One of the loveliest of the many beauties at Deauville is Mme Henri Letellier, wife of the proprietor of the Paris Journal. Of course no mere man could describe Mme Letellier's toilet from the sea shore, says ecstatically that they are "dreams of loveliness." This woman was struck particularly by Mme Letellier's pretty taste in colors. She wears a long, flowing muslin veil, never appearing twice in the same color; they cover a vast range of delicate tinted shades. Her gowns are on the style of the Directoire and veil set off the elegance of her figure.

BONI'S VESTS STARTLING.

Count Boni de Castellane is at Deauville, the guest of Marcel Bouquiers at the Villa Chevreteilles. Count Boni's star is in the ascendant; he is a great favorite in society at Deauville. There he has assumed again his old role as the arbiter of fashion. Count Boni is especially dazzling when he wears one of his light-colored waistcoats of silk or linen he possesses dozens of them. It seems, in a great variety of colors. The particular note of dandyism that he strikes is the invariable choice of a flower for his coat lapel, which harmonizes perfectly with his waistcoat. This idea is something new even for Deauville.

FASHION'S FRIVOLITIES.

To turn from women and men who delight in fashion's frivolities to a woman who finds her highest pleasure in the Academy of Sciences an important scientific work.

Mme. Curie, who, with her late husband, discovered radium, has sent to communication on the experiments of Sir William Ramsay, the great English chemist. Sir William stated that he has succeeded, by the use of radium, in transforming copper into a different metal—lithium. At this announcement the English chemists exclaimed triumphantly: "At last the philosopher's stone of the old alchemists has been discovered. At last the transmutation of metals has been realized."

EXPERIMENTS DO NOT CONFORM. But Mme. Curie says she tried to verify Sir William's experiment and the results she obtained do not confirm his experience. She seems to think that the lithium that responded to Sir William's delicate tests came from the vessels he used in them. She tells the academy that vessels made of glass or quartz contain lithium, and if water stands a while in them the most delicate tests will discover lithium in the water, too. So Mme. Curie, in company with another scientist, Mlle. Gleditch, repeated Sir William's experiment, but used platinum vessels and failed to find a trace of lithium; the alleged transmutation of copper into lithium did not occur.

THE LAONICS OF LADY AURELIA

BY LEITA RUSSELL.

Many men are so well trained they don't know that they are henpecked. The more extreme any quality is, the more unnatural it seems; a beautiful woman with an ugly disposition is intolerable. A man that hasn't the skill to lie may safely be trusted, but he never could run a trust safely.

There are a lot of girls in the world that are waiting maids until men take them as housekeepers.

In these days the greatest amount of darning and (muck) "aking is done with the pen.

Words are to indicate thoughts, often they indicate the lack of them. Give a woman a woman holds the chain of love, the more captive will the man become.

There are some husbands who put on airs and think they have been among royalty the morning after they have held four kings.

When the Girl You're Out Boating With Gets Poetical, Raves About Nature and Such, Keep Your Eye On Her

BY JOSEPH A. FLYNN.

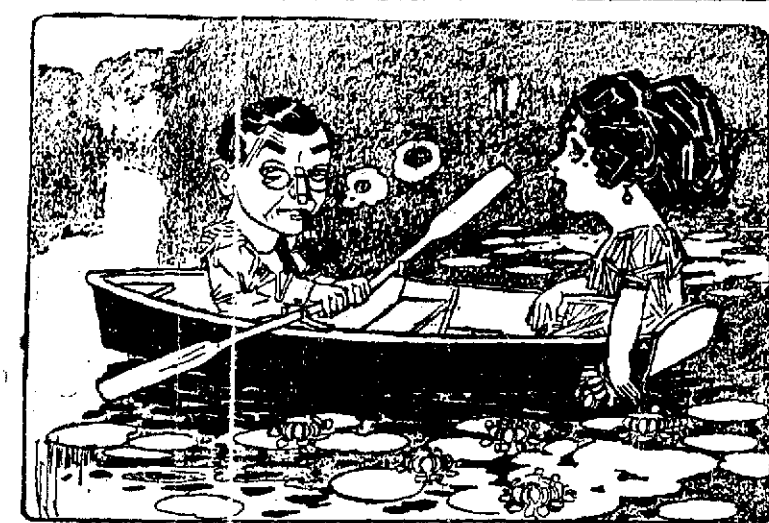

"They seemed to be taking life easy in a pretty, white boat on the Riddle lake, with no thought of the morrow. She was seated in the stern with her face turned toward the heavens, as if watching for some unusual event to transpire; while he rested on the oars and puffed away at his pipe almost mechanically. The blue sky was dotted here and there with lazy clouds. The sun, tired out after a long journey, was slowly dropping to rest behind a neighboring hill. The water all around them was still and presented a glassy surface, save where some sportive member of the finny tribe dispelled the illusion by leaping madly into the air after a venturesome fly. There was hardly a breath of air stirring, and the clouds in the west were gradually assuming a golden tint.

Across the water came the sweet perfume of pine trees and wild flowers, containing all the fragrance of the delightful breeze one encounters upon entering a small drug store. A single ray of sunlight lit up the woody hills, and the shadows were just beginning to creep in all around them.

She contemplated with delight the glowing sunset, but all the gorgeous magnificence with which nature painted the heavens at the close of day fell powerless on his eye. She seemed unusually talkative, he the reverse. She was thinking of the beauties around them, he of his supper.

"How I delight in nature!" she exclaimed in rapture, turning her clear blue eyes heavenward and gazing at the scene with a happy smile on her lips.

"Not for me," he rejoined, relighting such as a girl might wear after evading his pipe. "Nature isn't in it with a long the rush and getting in the first bowling alley." She appeared not to hear his remarks, but gazed off into space with a pleased expression on her features.

QUEEN ENA WEEPS OVER HORROR OF BULL FIGHT

MADRID.—Happy as a queen here is a saying that is not always true. Queens are more often than not slaves of traditions of the country over which they reign or in which they live, and to such are obliged to sacrifice their own private feelings and inclinations.

Queen Victoria Eugenie of Spain, the daughter of a nation which entertains a great respect for human life and a horror of all useless suffering, cannot bear the degrading spectacle of the bullfight, yet occasionally, despite her feelings, she is constrained to attend one, owing to the fact that the Spaniards, through a strange aberration of the intellect, consider this abominable

"pastime" as highly patriotic and one which the queen is bound to attend. Any one who ventures to protest against such a savage exhibition is at once classed as an enemy of Spain.

It is well known in certain circles which are well informed that the birth of the Infanta Don Jaime was premature. The child was not expected till the early part of July. Queen Victoria, a few days before this prince was born, attended a bullfight in Segovia accompanied by the king. Unfortunately on that occasion horrors were heaped on horrors, with dead and dying horses in agony and wounded matadors. Their majesties after the third bull retired precipitately to La Granja Pácor. Those who witnessed their departure noticed that the queen was greatly overcome and that her eyes were full of tears.

The spectacle had a great effect on the queen in her delicate state and there is very little doubt but that it was the cause of the premature birth of her second son. It is even whispered that for once in his life King Alfonso knew what fear was. But happily the robust constitution of the queen triumphed, and all was well. With the credit for my so-called graceful diving is due to this knowledge of a diving, which gave me pause and, certainly, while my feet are as supple as my hands, I play tennis and take runs—hot walks—all the training in swimming should have

Stops Salome Dance

NEW YORK.—Carola, a Spanish dancer, who was engaged to give a "Salome" dance at a ten days' carnival for the benefit of the German Hospital at Electric Park, Newark, N. J., has been prevented from dancing at the opening by Acting Captain Brown. He warned the management of the carnival he would arrest Carola if she danced.

Queen again attend the bullfights after this experience? Is the question asked, surely yes, for the sovereign will of her people will compel her so to do, at the disregard of her own feelings.

Stage Struck Girls Run Away From Home and Land in Court

NEW YORK.—Two pretty stage-struck girls appeared in the children's court against Harry T. Bradley, a traveling salesman from Atlanta, Ga., who has been living at the St. Dennis Hotel with their mother, Mrs. J. M. Montgomery, Philadelphia, and Ethel only, 15 years old, daughter of John Only of 1616 Columbia avenue, in the same city. They were apprehended at midnight Friday in Riverside Park in Bradley's company.

The girls ran away from home last Monday. They had made hits in a cantata given by their church last Christmas and felt sure they were born to blossom behind the footlights. Upon their arrival in the city they took a room at 210 East Twentieth street and started out in search of an engagement.

Agents Cook and Shea of the Children's Society, on a tour of duty Friday night, encountered the runaways at Twenty-third street and Fourth avenue. They walked to Madison Square, where they were approached by a dapper middle-aged man who lifted his hat and spoke with easy assurance. After a short conversation the man and the two girls went to the Cafe Boulevard. At the restaurant the man bought three table d'hôte dinners with wine.

Next they went to Grant's Tomb and soon disappeared in the dark shadows of Riverside Park with the Children's Society agent right behind.

Within a short time Cook and Shea arrested Bradley and held the girls as witnesses. The Only child tried to get away, but was caught by Policeman Metz.

Bradley was locked up in the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station and the runaways were held as witnesses.

In court the man was discharged.

PRETTY AMERICAN WHO ISN'T TO WED PRINCE AND IS NOW HEART FREE

LONDON.—The beautiful Mrs. Nora Langhorne of Virginia, now that her engagement to Prince Francis of Teck has been denied, seems to be as free as ever. She is seen about the city a great deal with her sister, Mrs. Waldorf Astor, and is regarded as one of the most charming of all the Americans here. Her sisters, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson and Mrs. Reginald Brooks, are also greatly admired. Mrs. Langhorne was the guest recently of Mrs. Drexel and was constantly surrounded by a throng of worshippers. She is remarkably clever as well as pretty, and when she decides to go married undoubtedly she will make a splendid match.
